Woodford County

Many of the thousands of acres of horse farms that make up Woodford County have been host to such notable figures as Queen Elizabeth II, President Bush and William Jennings Bryan.

Woodford County

A trip into the past.

Take a trip into the past. Journey through a canopy of tree-lined country lanes, over one-lane bridges, past wandering streams and lush pastures, in Woodford County's beautiful countryside. Experience the grandeur of the kings of Kentucky as you travel through the farms of thoroughbred country.

Lodging

Enjoy the grandeur of Woodford County's beautiful countryside as you stay at one of our historic inns. There are over 20 beautiful inns featuring accommodations in historic settings dating back to the 1700's. For more information on lodging, call (606) 873-5122.

Road Trip

Western Kentucky photojournalism students make the trek to Athens

Jake Herrle and Jason Gregory (right) made the trip to Athens, OH, for the Halloween party. Along the way they stopped to photograph this old church that had been converted into a tobacco barn.

DECLARATION

I, Minnie Bannister, declare as follows:

1. I am a resident of the community of Nonesuch. I have lived in the community for 50 years, and have first-hand knowledge that its residents (and those of surrounding areas) recognize that Nonesuch is its own distinct community.
2. Nonesuch is a community separate and distinct from any other community in Woodford County or the surrounding area. Among its other characteristics, it has a local store and sandwich shop, as well as other retail businesses, and its own branch of the fire department. More important, we residents of Nonesuch see ourselves as residing in a separate community.
3. In fact, Nonesuch takes considerable pride in its separate identity, including its unique name, and values the sense of community among its residents.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the statements made in this declaration are true and accurate to the best of my personal knowledge, information and belief.
